

training a new generation of researchers in gastroenterology and liver

former une nouvelle génération de chercheurs en gastro-entérologie et foie

TRIANGLE COMMITTEES

Step In, Speak Up,
Shape What Comes Next

CONNECT COMMITTEE

2 – 3 years

Length

Quarterly
(spring/summer)

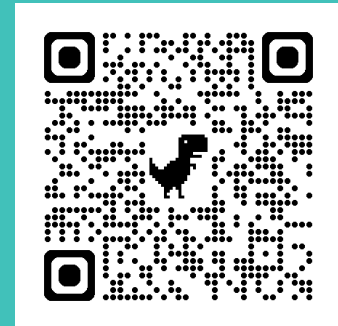

Meetings

Plan/host 7
virtual summer
student sessions
and 1 virtual
symposium

Mentor summer
students

Duties

Learn More

The CONNECT Summer Student Committee works to design and deliver workshops, courses, and a virtual symposium for summer student between April to August.

CURRICULUM COMMITTEE

2 – 3 years

Length

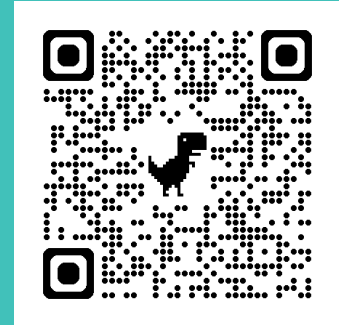

Monthly

Meetings

Monthly Virtual
Session Planning
Summit Planning

Duties

Learn More

The curriculum committee works to design and deliver the content for the annual summit including interactive career development workshops, as well as the monthly virtual events to help TRIANGLE awardees build skills and knowledge in their personal, professional career development.

EDI COMMITTEE

2 – 3 years

Length

Monthly

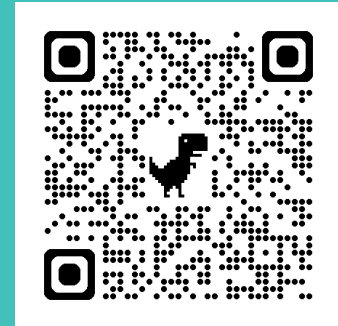

Meetings

1 virtual session
1 summit session

Advisory to network as needed

Duties

Learn More

The EDI committee oversees and advises on all TRIANGLE activities to ensure an equitable and inclusive environment that promotes the long-term success of a diverse community of GI and liver researchers.

ELP COMMITTEE

2 – 3 years

Length

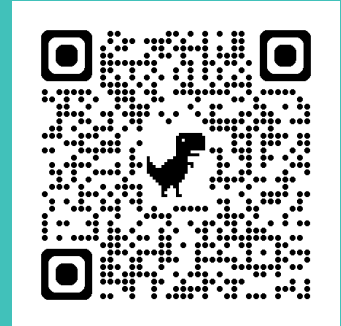

2 times per
years

Meetings

1 virtual session
Meet with awardees to review plans

Duties

Learn More

The experiential learning committee works to provide TRIANGLE awardees with opportunities to learn about new career and research opportunities via work placements in labs, companies, government agencies, funding agencies, etc.

MENTORSHIP COMMITTEE

2 – 3 years

Length

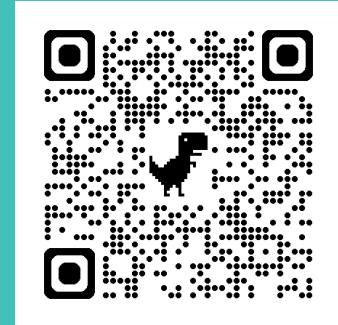

Monthly

Meetings

Pod planning
1 virtual session
1 summit session
IRDP review
Contract/mentor match
review

Duties

!! MENTORS NEEDED !!

Learn More

The mentorship committee creates mentorship opportunities--including creating mentorship pods, matching awardees to mentors, recruiting people to the College of Mentors, and providing mentorship for TRIANGLE awardees so that they have access to support and knowledge in all aspects of their personal, professional, and career development.

SELECTION COMMITTEE

2 – 3 years

Length

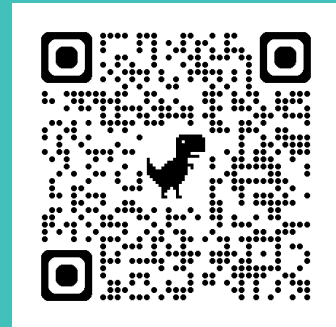

Annually
if needed

Meetings

Determines
award selection
criteria/rubric Conducts
Applicant review
(June – July)

Duties

Learn More

The selection committee designs the mechanisms and criteria by which TRIANGLE awardees are selected and chooses new awardees each year from among TRIANGLE applicants.

WELLNESS COMMITTEE

2 – 3 years

Length

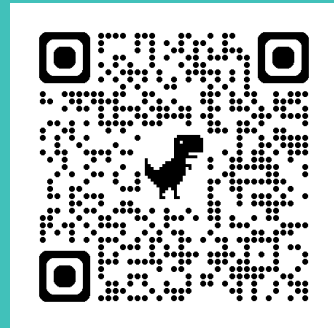

2-3 times
annually

Meetings

Becoming a Resilient
Scientist Series
(5 sessions)
Wellness
activities as needed

Duties

Learn More

The Wellness committee oversees and advises about all TRIANGLE program activities to ensure that the TRIANGLE program, and everything it does, supports the mental, physical, and emotional well-being of TRIANGLE members and the TRIANGLE community as a whole.